Why You Might Want to Contact My Office

No “Wrong” Reason: Any comment, question or concern is welcome. If your issue would be more appropriately addressed by a different unit of government, I will help direct you. But remember, I am here to serve YOU and your family.

Comment On Legislation: If you want to express your opinion about legislation or learn more, my office can answer your questions or keep me informed of your comments. Your opinion counts! When you want to show that you support or oppose a bill, writing a letter or email is often the most effective way to communicate.

Suggest Solutions: If you have ideas to improve the laws in our state, please feel free to share your suggestions. After all, our government is “by the people, for the people.” I am here to be YOUR voice in Lansing.

If You Need Help: If you have problems related to a state government issue, such as accessing unemployment benefits, my office can try to resolve them. We will always do our best to help direct you to the appropriate person for local, state or federal issues.
